ELIDA NEWS.

ELIDA, O., Sept. 10, 1894.

School began to-day with a good attendance.

John Lutz drilled in a well on the school premises this morning. The well is 70 feet in the rock.

The following named people registered in our village, Sunday: Mr. C. D. Orton and wife, Mrs. Chas. Fugh of Lima; Mr. William Kewler, of Wexley; Mr. Stanley Peltier, of Delphos; Miss Anna Swisher, of Bellefontaine; Mrs. D. Mullen, of Ellettsville; and Mr. Sam Morris, of Chicago.

Little Nellie, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Elman, died yesterday, of flux. The funeral was held this m. from the M. E. church, Rev. W. H. Leutherman, of Wapakoneta, officiating.

A little three-year-old son of Rev. William Deal, of Port Jefferson, Ohio, died on Thursday last of typhoid fever. The remains were brought to Elida on Saturday last and interred in Green Lawn Cemetery.

Rev. John Spyer preached at the M. E. church on Sunday evening. He is a young man, and a very young man. He is a young man, and a very young man.

Comrades George Kessler, David Brennen, J. R. Brennen, Thomas Morris and Melchior Bechtel left this morning for the national G. A. R. encampment at Pittsburgh, Pa.

The concert given at the M. E. church Saturday evening was not a financial success. The exercises consisted of recitations and songs which, with a few exceptions, were well rendered.

The Elida Turkey Gobblers crossed bats with the Honey Run Roosters, on Saturday last, at the Elida ground. The game resulted in a score of 24 to 17 in favor of the Gobblers. The Roosters, aggravated by the stultification of the victorious Gobblers at once challenged them to play another game of five innings for money. The challenge was accepted and the result was 14 to 4 in favor of the Gobblers. Gobble-obble-obble!

Hood's Pills cure constipation by restoring peristaltic action of the alimentary canal.

The Next World's Fair.

The French government is already taking the initial steps for the great World's fair in Paris in the year 1900. It has been decided that the exhibition grounds will include the Champ de Mars, the Trocadero, the Quai d'Orsay, the Esplanade des Invalides, the Quai de la Conference, the Cours la Reine, and the Palais de l'Industrie with its grounds. Bridges will be built over the Seine, a very large and broad one in front of the Invalides.

While in Chicago, Mr. Charles L. Kahler, a prominent shoe merchant of Des Moines, Iowa, had quite a severe cold. He took such a severe cold that he could hardly talk or navigate, but the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured him of his cold so quickly that others at the hotel who had bad colds followed his example and had a dozen persons ordered from the nearest drug store. To Mr. Kahler for telling them how to cure a bad cold so quickly. For sale by Melville Bros., druggists, postoffice building.

Dr. Stephenson's Monument.

The monument that was recently placed over the grave of Dr. B. F. Stephenson, the founder of the Grand Army of the Republic, in Eastern cemetery, near Petersburg, Ill., is of granite, and is a well admired for its artistic beauty. The monument is to be unveiled some time this autumn, and the event will be made a national affair.

Sent by mail for 50 cents. Address Allen's Discovery, Box 33, LeRoy, N. Y.

European Rod Top.

It is stated that the reason why a certain electrically driven carriage from Italy could not take part in the recent competition held in Paris was that the French custom house officers could not make up their minds what duty to charge for electrical carriages, and therefore could not admit this one into France.

A. M. Bally, a well known citizen of Eugene, Oregon, says his wife has for years been troubled with chronic rheumatism and used many remedies with little relief until she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which has cured her sound and well. Given it a trial and you will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Melville Bros., druggists, postoffice building.

Funeral Director J. E. Grosjean.

Is now occupying his new undertaking rooms in the Boone block, 114 West Market street, next door to the gas office. The office is open day and night and all calls will be promptly and carefully attended to. 279-1.

HER PRIVATE LIFE.

How Little We Know of Each Other's Affairs.

Troubles and Trials Which We Keep to Ourselves.

Some Good Reasons Why it is Wise to Tell Our Experiences.

A story of great suffering comes from Middlesex, Vt. Mrs. B. A. Stockwell, a well known lady residing there, has endured the most intense agony from headaches. She continued to suffer faithfully without obtaining relief. Finally a friend who had recovered from a similar complaint told her just what to do to be cured.

She is now well and wants every suffering woman to know about it. Here is her remarkable letter:

"About a year and a half ago," she says, "I had a time of very severe headaches, which, while they lasted were so bad that I could not sit up. They lasted from one to two days, generally two, and after I got over them I was completely prostrated. I tried many remedies but could not find anything to relieve me. I became fearfully discouraged and downhearted and feared I should never get well."

"I finally began the use of Dr. Greene's Nervura, and in a very short time was much better. I am now entirely cured, thanks to this wonderful medicine. I desire to recommend it to everyone who is suffering from any complaint, for I know that it will cure them."

People everywhere are suffering from disease, when if they would use Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy they would be cured. If you, reader, have headache, pain in any part, or any symptom of nervous or chronic disease, take this great remedy and you will be made perfectly well. It is the discovery of Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th Street, New York, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

Afterwards he used two bottles of the same medicine and says he is entirely cured."

English Prices.

The reproduction of prices is now a serious problem in England. They are becoming anxious beyond all precedent, and what to do with them must sooner or later engage the attention of the people who at present feel them. These prices, it must be understood, are practically worthless in the social economy of the race. They are all equal by birth, they are all claim to some active careers. They are not from inactive careers. They are not from inactive careers. They are not from inactive careers.

Couldn't Prove It.

This morning a German named Chas. Hauf was arraigned before the mayor on a charge of malicious destruction of property, which was preferred by Edward Young.

The plaintiff and defendant were formerly both employed on Bittelsheim's dairy farm and some time ago Young had a suit of clothes and a hat out of ribbons by some one and as he and Hauf had had some trouble, Hauf was suspected.

There was however no evidence to prove that Hauf was guilty and consequently the mayor discharged him and dismissed the case.

A BANQUET

Served in Honor of Ex-Auditor Crites by His Brother Officials.

The Banquet Dining Room the Scene of Festivity and Merry Making Last Night.

Commissioner John Amstutz, who is always on the alert for the benefit of his friends, yesterday arranged with the members of the official family of Allen county to meet at the Commissioners' office at 7:30 o'clock on Monday evening on business of importance. That hour found the following-named persons collected at the appointed place: Commissioner John Amstutz, ex-Auditor O. D. Crites, Probate Judge T. D. Robb, Senator H. J. Lawler, Treasurer Amos Young, Prosecuting Attorney J. C. Ridenour, Coroner L. J. Stueber, Clerk U. M. Skappell, Auditor Philip Walther, Sheriff Aaron Fisher, Surveyor J. O. Groney, Deputy Probate Judge A. D. Miller, Deputy Treasurer Henry Blosser, Deputy Clerk Sullivan, ex-Prosecuting Attorney Isaac S. Motter, and representatives of the various newspapers of the city, who were to participate in a complimentary dinner to be given in honor of ex-Auditor O. D. Crites, who yesterday, at the expiration of his elective term, retired from the roster of Allen county officials. The company repaired to the pleasant dining rooms of the Burnett House, where a very excellent dinner was served. The merits of the dinner having been fully tested by the coteries of hungry men, the plates were carried away, and with genial John Amstutz as toast-master a series of after-dinner speeches were delivered by the gentlemen present.

The general trend of the speeches was eulogistic of Mr. Crites and of his methods of caring for the business of Allen county while he occupied the position of auditor. At the conclusion of all the remarks Mr. Crites was called out and for a few minutes he entertained his friends with a statement of some facts connected with the business affairs of Allen county. He stated that he had served as auditor for six years and as deputy for about seven making in all thirteen years, and during that time had endeavored to serve his constituency well. He adverted to the fact that at this time the condition of affairs in Allen county would compare favorably with that of any county in Ohio—would put to shame the conditions of affairs in Lima. Allen county has as good public buildings as any county in the State—all paid for excepting a small portion for the Children's Home, which would be taken care of in a short time. Allen county has five hundred miles of good pikes, all paid for, and that too without the issuing of bonds. This is in striking contrast with the deplorable condition of the municipal affairs of the city of Lima where there is a bonded indebtedness of nearly half a million dollars, without any provision for its payment.

In reference to his resignation of the extended term of office, Mr. Crites said:

"I am a Democrat and was elected Auditor by Democratic votes. The term for which I was elected expired on the 10th day of September and on that day I stepped down and out. The late Republican Legislature extended the term of Auditor about a month, but I did not accept the extension for I do not propose to be elected to any position by Republican votes, and they want to substantially express my contempt for the late Legislature by refusing to accept that which they offer."

At the conclusion of Mr. Crites remarks, the entire company joined in a rendition of "Auld Lang Syne," and dispersed.

GRIBBED IT BODILY.

The Lima Gazette a Plagiarist Pure and Simple.

Those of the readers of the Gazette who this morning read an article carrying the head "School Begun," in that paper, perhaps wondered at the lack of grammatical blunders—which are so amusing a feature in all the Gazette's original matter—in that one article. Had those wondering people been readers of the Chicago Record the mystery would have been explained for the article "Over-batting at Literature" with the single change in the name of the town, appeared in that paper yesterday. The Gazette people had cut it out bodily, adapted the name of the town to suit them and tried to palm it off as original matter. As nearly a hundred copies of the Record are read in Lima, it is not hard to find out that a great many are onto the plagiarist and are poking fun at the boys about it.

AWAY DOWN

Is the Price of Brick Paving at the City of Newark.

This morning Mr. Charles Nutter received a letter from his brother, R. H. Nutter, of Newark, O., which, among other things, says:

"I am pleased to let you know that I was awarded the contract for paving the Fourth street from Main to the north line of Locust street, and expect to begin work soon. I would like very well to know who got the work at your city, and the price paid. I wish the Jones block and do all the work for 7c per square yard. This block is equal to the Hallwood block in every way."

The above shows that eastern cities are getting brick paving away down in price.—Piquette Dispatch.

Bernard is Coming.

Porter & Son, who have for several weeks been making an effort to get C. F. Bernard, the great piano tuner, of Elgin, Ills., to locate in this city, to-day received a letter from Mr. Bernard stating that the propositions made were agreeable, and that he will be here in a few days and will also remove his family here and make this city his future home. Mr. Bernard has been leader of the celebrated Elgin band for the past eight years and is recommended as an artist with the cornet, which instrument he will play with the opera house orchestra after his arrival here.

He has also been engaged in piano for a number of years and is highly recommended in that line. It will be to the interest of all piano owners to give him a call.

NOTHING DONE

At the Council Meeting Again Last Evening.

A Quarrel About the Minutes Leads to Some Loud and Long Talk.

"The city council met in regular session last night with president Hughes in the chair and the following members present: Messrs. Kemper, Harley, Fall, Standish, Polcy, Greenland, Spellyay, Dietrich, Polcy and McVey.

Minutes of last meeting were read and when the president asked if there were any objections, Mr. Spellyay arose and moved to have the resolution submitted two weeks ago to employ four attorneys to fight the injunction, and also the minutes of the last session three weeks ago, inserted in the regular minutes. Mr. Kemper seconded Mr. Spellyay's motion, when Mr. Dietrich arose and stated that the action of the chairman at the meetings two and three weeks ago were neither right nor legal. He declared that Mr. Hughes was running things to a high handed manner and that he would stand it no longer; if there was bull doing to be done he would do so much of it as any body; that Hughes had no authority to declare a meeting adjourned simply because he considered a motion out of order or because it did not suit his own fancy.

Mr. Hughes interrupted Mr. Dietrich, saying: "Mr. Dietrich you can argue this matter as much as you please and censure me on account of my actions if you want to, but don't accuse me of having any selfish motives in the matter."

Mr. Dietrich stopped long enough to draw a deep breath and then continued: "You have acted selfishly and you can't deny it. I go by the records and the records prove it. You have no right to be dictator to us, you are not the whole council by a long shot; your high-handedness and dictatorial are the talk of everybody in the city, and we'll stand it no longer, and furthermore I want the clerk to understand that he must follow the instructions of this council and not be guided by the solicitor who has gone back on the city, and don't know any more about law than a ten-year-old boy and all the minutes are not put in the books we'll get some one who will."

Mr. Dietrich finally sat down, but had scarcely reached his seat when Mr. FOLEY JUMPED UP and said that he was just as good a citizen as any one but that if he had to be called a dictator he would be called as any body. He said Messrs. Ridenour & Halfhill and Callahan & Parmeter should be paid by the city, but that Attorney Price would have to get his fees from Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Thompson and Mr. Stamets; that he would never get a dollar from the city as long as he was a member of the council.

When Mr. Foley had finished Mr. McVey arose and said:

"Mr. Chairman, I would like to know if the city will have to pay these men."

Mr. Foley said the city would.

"Well," continued Mr. McVey, "if you are going to continue to run things this way, I'll resign my position as a councilman before I'll stay here and have things going on as they now are."

Mr. Foley said: "Why don't you resign?" and, getting on the floor again, he continued, in a loud voice, "If our councilmen wanted to meet at Dietrich's we had a right to; or to meet anywhere else we'd a mind to, and its nobody's business but our own. We have rights the same as anybody."

Mr. Greenland was next to take the floor, and stated:

"I have rights, too, Mr. Chairman, and I don't intend to be bulldozed by any one longer. You said on the witness stand that I didn't know anything about brick, and refused to examine them with your finger while I was looking at bricks with you. I'm just as honest as you dare be."

"I haven't questioned your honesty," interrupted the chair.

Mr. Greenland continued: "I'm one of the nine, and am proud of it, and we don't intend to stand your bulldozing any longer."

Mr. Hughes told the gentlemen that they were out of order and that he would adjourn the meeting if they didn't argue the question before the house.

Mr. Foley called for the minutes of the meeting three weeks ago.

Mr. Dietrich demanded that Mr. Spellyay's motion be put before the house.

Mr. Hughes said before the motion was properly made and seconded and regularly argued by the house, he would put it to a vote and not before.

"Then I move you, Mr. Chairman, that we adjourn," said Foley.

"The motion," Mr. Kemper. The motion was put before the house and was carried by the following vote: Yeas—Foley, Chapin, Greenland, Kemper, Dietrich and Spellyay. Nays—Standish, McVey, Harley, Fall and Hughes.

After the adjournment Mr. Dietrich followed the clerk down stairs and told him that they were after him, and he had better do his work right. Mr. Lynch replied, "Wait."

HANDSOME SUM

Realized from the Production of the Midway Pleasure.

The TIMES-DEMOCRAT the other day contained the announcement that the sum realized by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Y. M. C.
